

Will be better for having ere will be fewer tardy ver broken appointments.
a the value of time, that of time, just moments of moments put to good use ess or failure. Teach them on time, to meet the train do everything on time and the cares of life. We have all sizes and conditions, for es and men, from $1 up:
ok at them.

STORMY-PAIR;
 RAIN OF KNOW;
 A BLOW-THILL WARMER GROW; BENEFIT-COLDER TWILL BE;
 We're not down no change we'll see;
 Yea, to us made for a period of 8 o'clock tomorrow eve

SWORN CIRCULATION

NEXT WEDNESDAY

The details for the Court-Martial of Gen. Egan have finally been arranged.

A BOARD OF THIRTEEN ARMY OFFICERS.

Maj. Gen. Wesley Merritt Will Be the President and Judge Advocate of the Court.

It Will Meet in Washington January 25, or as Soon Thereafter as Possible—All Members of Board With One Exception Are Regulars.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The details for the court-martial which is to try Congress General Charles P. Egan on charges growing out of his statements before the war investigation committee last week in which he admitted that Gen. Miles was made public at the war department Wednesday night. The court is made up of 13 army officers, of whom Maj. Gen. Wesley Merritt is at the head and a judge advocate, and it is to meet in this city on Wednesday, the 25th inst., or as soon thereafter as practicable, this qualification being necessary because a number of the members are at distant points and will require some days to reach their affairs and reach this city. All the officers composing the court, save one, are from the regular army, a number of whom, however, during the war accepted volunteer rank and still hold those commissions. Maj. Gen. Butler is the only one who is not connected with the regular army. Adj. Gen. Corbin returned early in the morning from his trip to New York, where he went to witness the departure of the transport Quaker for Manila, and came to the war department about half-past 8 o'clock. He then signed the formal order promulgating the details for the court which is as follows:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, Jan. 19.—The following order is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19, 1900.—By direction of the president the general court-martial is appointed to meet in this city at 10 o'clock a.m. on Wednesday, the 25th day of January, 1900, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of Brigadier Charles P. Egan, commissary general of subsistence, United States army, and such other persons as may be brought before it.

Detail for the court:

Maj. Gen. Wesley Merritt, U. S. army.

Maj. Gen. James S. Wade, U. S. volunteers.

Maj. Gen. Matthew C. Butler, U. S. volunteers.

Maj. Gen. Samuel B. M. Young, U. S. volunteers.

Brig. Gen. Royal T. Frank, U. S. volunteers.

Brig. Gen. Alexander C. McW. Pennington, U. S. volunteers.

Brig. Gen. George N. Randall, U. S. volunteers.

Col. Jacob H. Egan, U. S. volunteers.

Richard Combs, U. S.

C. Haines, corps of en-

G. L. Gillespie, corps of en-

Suter, corps of engi-

Guenter, 4th artill-

George B. Davis, deputy general, judge advocate

empowered to proceed

as before it with any power not less than the power of law.

Adjutant of the will return to their

(Signed),

A. ALGER,

Secretary of War.

indicated by an officer

general's office Wednesday, the probability

Egan will not be placed arrest and deprived of prison pending and during it will be subject to and technical arrest.

In the case of a rank this is occasion-

done, and this course

way invalidate the of the court.

as in Washington.

Jan. 19.—A large dele-

Ohio centennial composition company and

of Toledo, O., accom-

representative Southard

McKinley Wednesday

at all on Secretary Longley met the Ohio

operation and conferred

DINGLEY'S SUCCESSOR

Congressman Sereno Payne, of New York, Selected for Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—As stated several days ago in these dispatches, Representative Sereno E. Payne, of New York, is certain to succeed the late Mr. Dingley as chairman of the ways and means committee. The matter has been settled by Speaker Reed, Mr.

MOR. SERENO E. PAYNE, NEW YORK.

Payne was entitled to the honor by length of service and it is conceded by all that he is highly competent to assume the republican leadership on the floor.

The death of Representative Dingley leaves a vacancy on the Anglo-American commission, which the president has decided to fill speedily. Representative James A. Tawney, of Minnesota, is being urged for the appointment.

OFF ROUND ISLAND.

The Lanchester Boat Was Wrecked January 11 and Was Spoken by the Master of the Tug Log.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 19.—Mayor Taggart and Lawrence Jones decided to leave Seranton, Miss., at midnight Wednesday night on the tug Log for Grand Batture and Chandelier. The weather is very rough, but their anxiety compels them to go. The Paul Jones was seen off Round Island January 11 and was spoken by the master of the Log.

No confirmation has been received of seeing distress signals on the Lanchester. Jones claims that trunks were found on Breton Island, which contained stockings marked "F. E. Taggart," the name of one of the missing people, Florence Taggart. When the yacht sailed the trunks were on the top deck and could have been washed overboard in a squall. Later dispatches say that the wreckage of a small craft has been found on Bird Island.

Two expeditions out of New Orleans Thursday morning have been authorized by Jones and Taggart. The Maud, the government engineers boat of Mobile will reach Seranton at 6 a.m., but Jones and Taggart concluded at midnight Wednesday not to wait for it.

STEAMER OUACHITA BURNED.

In Fifteen Minutes After the Fire Started But Little Was Left of the Boat—Loss About $30,000.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 19.—The Memphis and Vicksburg packet liner Ouachita, Capt. Bender, was destroyed by fire early Thursday morning at the foot of Jefferson street, where she was tied up for the night at the Memphis dock.

The blaze started about 1:15 o'clock and in 15 minutes very little was left of the boat, except the hull and a mass of twisted rigging. Rumors spread that there were several passengers aboard, but on close investigation it is believed every one escaped.

The Ouachita is a passenger and freight boat in the Memphis and Vicksburg trade and was valued at $30,000, with insurance of $30,000.

The fire originated in the boiler rooms.

The boat had a cargo of merchandise for points south and was to depart Thursday morning.

Judge Greenup Appointed Circuit Judge.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The president Wednesday nominated Peter S. Grosscup, of Illinois, to be United States circuit judge for the Seventh judicial district.

Bill Providing for a New Judicial House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Deboe Wednesday introduced a joint resolution providing for the appointment of a congressional commission to decide upon the advisability of establishing a national soldiers' home at Abraham Lincoln's birthplace in Kentucky.

Minor to Senator Dewey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Senator-elect Chauncey M. Depew was honored Wednesday night by a dinner at the Republican club, of which he is president. One hundred members were present.

Minor to Senator Dewey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Senator-elect Chauncey M. Depew was honored Wednesday night by a dinner at the Republican club, of which he is president. One hundred members were present.

Minor to Senator Dewey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Senator-elect Chauncey M. Depew was honored Wednesday night by a dinner at the Republican club, of which he is president. One hundred members were present.

Minor to Senator Dewey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Senator-elect Chauncey M. Depew was honored Wednesday night by a dinner at the Republican club, of which he is president. One hundred members were present.

A CRASH.

A Terrible Disaster to the Wilson Avenue Viaduct at Cleveland, O., Wednesday.

CULVERT STOPPED UP, WATER DAMMED

The Dam Broke and Six Abutments of the Structure Were Washed Away by the Flood.

Thirty Men Working Twenty-Five Feet Below the Summit of the Dam Made Narrow Escapes With Their Lives—Bridge in Ruins.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 19.—The handsome new Wilson avenue viaduct fell at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday. It is a terrible wreck.

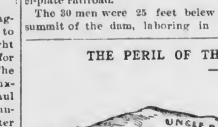

Shortly before 2 o'clock the dam, which had been piling up the water at the bridge, gave way and the torrent swept down and washed out two of the piers. The culverts got stopped up several days ago and the water dammed up 30 feet. There was fear for the long viaduct. Traffic was suspended in anticipation of possible danger.

Two more piers collapsed at 9 a.m. The fifth pier gave way at 10:30. At 10:30 a.m. the sixth abutment gave way and the big viaduct sagged low. Then, with a tremendous report, it snapped in two above the great hole which had been washed away beneath it. About 150 feet of the bridge forms an incline to the bed of the creek below, where are the tracks of the Nickel-plate railroad.

The 20 men were 25 feet below the summit of the dam, laboring in the dim glow of a few insignificant lights, when their form suddenly called to them to run for their lives. Most of them being foreigners and slow to understand English, but very few knew what the command meant and did not at first show any signs of heeding it, and were literally dragged away.

THE PERIL OF THE FIERY TYPEWRITER.

UNCLE SAM

The north end of the Wilson avenue bridge has been moved from its foundation half an inch and engineers have given up hope of saving the structure. Five of its piers have crumbled away and sunk below the surface of the water.

A terrible collapse of the earth on the south side of the dam near the abutments occurred early Wednesday, carrying away 15 feet of earth carrying several telegraph poles along with it. A few moments later the water undermined an embankment 150 feet high and 50 feet in area sweeping it down with the raging flood.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the great abutment of the big bridge gave way.

Dingley Laid to Rest.

LEWISTON, Me., Jan. 19.—Wednesday was a day of grief and mourning here over Congressman Dingley. In the early morning business was generally suspended. At 9 o'clock a private prayer service took place at the family residence. At its close the remains were borne to the Pine street Congregational church, where services were held. Interment took place at Oak Hill cemetery, Auburn.

Minority in Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Maj. Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy arrived this evening from Rotterdam to testify before the court of session in the Dreyfus revision inquiry. Several newspaper men met him at the railway station but he declined to be interviewed.

Nominations for United States Senator.

COLUMBIA, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The democratic members of the legislature met Wednesday night in a secret caucus and nominated John T. McGraw, of Gratton, for the United States senate.

Story Business Week Almost Barred Out—Many Business Firms Suffered—Loss, $500,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The great six-story store of A. J. Canneyer, at 310 to 318 Sixth avenue, occupying the greater part of the block between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, was almost burned out Wednesday night. Other occupants of the building who suffered heavy losses were: K. L. Carey & Co., dress makers, who occupied the second floor; Madame Poole, corset and corset manufacturer; Nathan Kranskopf, manufacturer of infants' clothing; S. Raub & Co., overhauls and leggings; and F. W. Lodge & Co., proprietors of the New York building material exhibit, and Alexander & Co., shoes. The loss is placed at $500,000.

A SERIOUS ASPECT.

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 19.—The political situation has assumed a serious aspect by reason of the refusal of Gov. Atkinson and the senate, which is republican, to formally recognize the house. Though the governor has been notified that the house is organized and ready for business, the governor has not transmitted his message, and there is no indication to whom he will do so. The governor was asked Wednesday afternoon the reason for his course, but declined to talk. The senate persisted in its dilatory attitude of adjourning each day immediately after coming and thus frustrated the efforts of the house committee to apply it of the fact that the house is in session. A republican leader in the house Wednesday made the remark that: "There will be a house in a few days that the government will recognize."

Gov. Atkinson and the Senate Refuse to Recognize the West Virginia House as Organized—Business Blocked.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

Non-terrible of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement of the organs of menstruation. Nearly always the cause when a woman is not well those organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very sickly.

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice to cure various special directions, address, giving symptoms, The Ladies' Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and feeling could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui cured her and she is now a healthy mother through the Change of Life."

WINE OF CARDUI

CHANCE FOR YOUNG LADIES.

A Season Ticket to the Opera House in its Some Fair Place.

The Washington Opera House Company has arranged a series of 100 tickets, no one of which will be awarded a three story brick house on Wall street.

The tickets are in use from 1 cent for the first one up to $10 for the last one. It is to be a contest of numbers.

Indice to be sold in a number of papers, and those who sell the most number will be given a season ticket to the opera house. Any person should be made aware of J. D. Van Hook.

Direct Route Between and West.

Passengers going to any point and desiring a quick and comfortable trip should take the Baltimore and Annapolis line. It is the only line through its own through trains between Baltimore and Annapolis.

It also has the valuable right of access to the city and the trains is proverbially prompt.

The traveler over such a line as this is a great advantage. It is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The "Direct Route" is the most modern and most comfortable line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

The Baltimore and Annapolis line is the only line between Baltimore and Annapolis.

RIDING ON THE RAIL

LOOK HERE FOR DATES AND LOW RATES.

Are you contemplating a "Winter" trip? If so, you would be interested in our several personally conducted tours leave in January, February, 1900. By several of these tours all expenses are included and the cost is very low. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years.

Are you contemplating a "Winter" trip? If so, you would be interested in our several personally conducted tours leave in January, February, 1900. By several of these tours all expenses are included and the cost is very low. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years.

Are you contemplating a "Winter" trip? If so, you would be interested in our several personally conducted tours leave in January, February, 1900. By several of these tours all expenses are included and the cost is very low. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years.

Are you contemplating a "Winter" trip? If so, you would be interested in our several personally conducted tours leave in January, February, 1900. By several of these tours all expenses are included and the cost is very low. The tours are conducted by experienced representatives, who have been conducting tours for many years.

